

HIPAA Confidentiality Agreement

This Agreement is on _____ between Kristine Bahr and my client,

The terms:

“Confidential Information” refers to all health information of this client. This includes medical record and test results. It includes other sensitive information which is considered confidential by the client.

If there is a breach of violation of the confidential information, I would be subjected to a penalty and without prejudice to the rights of the injured part to file legal action.

Nutritionist

Date Signed: _____

Client:

Date signed:
